

WINGS OVER ASIA

by Rainer Sigel

A CULTURE OF PASSION

THE ANNUAL ASIA AVIATORS
GATHERING DRAWS AIRCRAFT,
OWNER-PILOTS AND ENTHUSIASTS

One of the Daher
TBM900 & TBM850
turboprops flown in by a WOA member who attended the event

ORGANISED BY SINGAPORE-BASED WINGSOVERASIA, THIS YEAR'S GATHERING OF GENERAL AVIATION ENTHUSIASTS DREW OWNERS, PILOTS AND FLYING BUFFS FROM AROUND THE ASIA-PACIFIC REGION.

It was held at the opulent Rancho Charnvee Resort, located 100 km north-east of Bangkok in the Khao Yai hills, complete with its very own 1,200 m runway, 18-hole par 72 golf course with club house, horse riding facilities, and a well-run resort with 62 deluxe rooms and private villas.

The two-day gathering was attended by Jetgala, and attracted several private aircraft, flown in from as far away as Singapore, and representatives of Cessna, Cirrus, Piper and Daher. WingsOverAsia Founder Ng Yeow Meng organises these annual events as part of his greater vision to promote a strong and vibrant General Aviation sector in Southeast Asia www.wingsoverasia.com

WINGSOVERASIA FOUNDER NG YEOW MENG ORGANISES THESE ANNUAL EVENTS AS PART OF HIS GREATER VISION TO PROMOTE A STRONG AND VIBRANT GENERAL AVIATION SECTOR IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

FROM TOP

The resort style valet pick-up for the private aircraft arrivals at the event

FROM TOP

Thai WOA pilot member and Asia PGA professional golfer Pariya Junhasavasdikul test flying the Cirrus SR22G5

Pariya Junhasavasdikul arriving at the private airfield within the Rancho Charnvee Golf Resort